

Name : _____ Class Period: _____

Population, Community, Ecosystem Flipped Homework

Directions: Watch the video at the link below. Use what you hear to fill in the blanks. <http://safeshare.tv/x/stEPhBGVlv>

We know from 5th grade that an organism is a single living thing, such as a plant or an animal.

An example of a population would be _____ of the _____ in a _____.

A population is a group of the _____ living in an area.

Sometimes different populations live in the same area. Many populations in the same area are called a _____.

Within a community, populations interact such as when owls hunt and kill mice as they obtain _____ they need to survive.

An ecosystem is a term that scientists give to all of the _____ and _____ things in an area.

Summary:

Populations are all members of one _____.

Communities are many _____.

Ecosystems include _____ and the nonliving parts.